Kitsune — News Desk Briefing
Prepared: 3/19/2026, 5:53:34 PM

Kitsune's Digest

Greetings. The ink is fresh upon the parchment, yet the world turns faster than a brush can stroke. Let us look through the lantern's glow at the patterns forming in the dust. Here is the state of the scroll as it stands.

MAIN HEADLINES

• Prime Minister Netanyahu claims Israel acted alone in strikes on Iranian gas fields and destroyed uranium enrichment capabilities.
• Japan pledges $73 billion in U.S. investment following a meeting between Prime Minister Takaichi and President Trump.
• Jeff Bezos is in talks to raise a $100 billion fund to transform companies using artificial intelligence.
• A U.S. F-35 aircraft made an emergency landing following a combat mission over Iran.
• Two dozen states and ten cities have sued the EPA over the repeal of the "endangerment" climate finding.
• The upcoming season of "The Bachelorette" was canceled following the release of an assault video involving Taylor Frankie Paul.
• Wall Street executives are urging the White House to resolve the ongoing feud between President Trump and Jerome Powell.
• The body of a missing University of Alabama student was recovered and confirmed found in Spain.
• Live Nation's CEO denied monopoly allegations during testimony at a federal antitrust trial.
• Iran has launched attacks on Gulf energy sites, prompting the U.S. to consider a rollback of sanctions.
• A horror novel titled "Shy Girl" has been canceled due to suspected use of artificial intelligence.
• FIFA has fined the Israel Football Association citing racism and multiple discrimination breaches.

THEMES

• Escalating kinetic and economic conflict in the Middle East involving Israel, Iran, and U.S. military assets.
• Massive capital shifts toward artificial intelligence and international investment amid domestic political friction.

• Legal challenges to federal authority regarding environmental protections and antitrust regulations.
• The impact of digital evidence and AI on the stability of the entertainment and publishing industries.

CATEGORIES

USA
• Twenty-four states sue EPA over the revocation of the climate "endangerment" finding.
• Wall Street leaders plead for an end to the public dispute between the White House and the Federal Reserve.
• Reports allege DHS contractors were told to pay Corey Lewandowski during the contracting process.
• A Florida fugitive wanted since 1989 for child molestation was apprehended in upstate New York.
• Meteorite hunters descend on Ohio following a visible fireball event.

WORLD
• Netanyahu states Iran is "weaker than ever" while praising the U.S. administration.
• Iran executes a teenager in connection with anti-government protests.
• Denmark reportedly had historical plans to disable Greenland runways to prevent a U.S. invasion.
• An American student, James Gracey, was found dead in Barcelona after being reported missing.

TECH
• Project Prometheus: Jeff Bezos seeks $100 billion for an AI-centric investment fund.
• A publisher canceled the novel "Shy Girl" after readers suspected the text was AI-generated.
• Boston Scientific faces scrutiny over claims it knew of pacemaker battery defects for years.

ENTERTAINMENT
• ABC pulls "The Bachelorette" season featuring Taylor Frankie Paul after domestic abuse allegations.
• Live Nation CEO Michael Rapino testifies that the company does not hold a monopoly on the music industry.
• New allegations surface regarding the late Bob Barker's conduct in "The Price Is Right" dressing rooms.
• CBS News' Margaret Brennan faces criticism over her reaction to Pete Hegseth's call for prayer.

SPORTS
• FIFA President Gianni Infantino receives a $6 million deal with increased bonuses for the Club World Cup.
• The New York Islanders are moving their AHL affiliate from Bridgeport to Hamilton, Ontario.
• Max Scherzer proposes a World Baseball Classic scheduling tweak to encourage more pitcher participation.
• Braves player Jurickson Profar receives a full-season ban after his appeal was denied.

OTHER
• A North Carolina woman was mauled by an otter during a marathon event.
• Firefighters in Vermont rescued a raccoon with a peanut butter jar stuck on its head.
• A passenger meltdown over a reclined seat on a flight has renewed public debate on travel etiquette.

WATCHLIST / UNKNOWN

• The specific terms and timeline of the potential U.S. sanctions rollback for Iran.
• The health status of the pilot involved in the F-35 emergency landing over Iran.
• The outcome of the Live Nation antitrust trial and its potential to restructure the ticketing industry.
• Whether Tucker Carlson will officially enter the 2028 presidential race following recent interviews.
• The resolution of the renaming of Cesar Chavez Avenue in light of new abuse allegations against the late activist.

SOURCES
System source stats:
• Feeds in profile: 10
• Headlines scanned: 179
• Digest items passed to model: 60
• Unique domains in digest items: 7

Sources used (deduped by domain):
• New York Post (nypost.com) — 20
  • Example: Restaurateurs bet on NYC despite Mamdani's anti-business proposals: 'Mayors come and go'
  • Example: 'Price Is Right' host Bob Barker's filthy dressing room secrets exposed
• NYT (nytimes.com) — 12
  • Example: Jeff Bezos in Talks to Raise $100 Billion Fund to Transform Companies With A.I.
  • Example: 'Bachelorette' Season With Taylor Frankie Paul Canceled After Assault Video

- The Independent World (independent.co.uk) — 12
  - Example: Tucker Carlson answers whether he will run for president in 2028 in new interview
  - Example: Greedy raccoon with peanut butter jar stuck on its head rescued by firefighters
- Al Jazeera (aljazeera.com) — 9
  - Example: Netanyahu says Iran’s uranium enrichment abilities destroyed
  - Example: Israel continues Gaza attacks amid regional war, kills several Palestinians
- BBC News (bbc.com) — 5
  - Example: Netanyahu says Israel 'acted alone' in attack on Iranian gas field
  - Example: Bachelorette's new season pulled after Taylor Frankie Paul abuse allegations
- World (washingtonpost.com) — 1
  - Example: Iran hits Gulf energy sites, escalating war, as U.S. mulls sanctions rollback
- World & Nation (latimes.com) — 1
  - Example: Trump cracks a joke about Pearl Harbor, with Japanese PM sitting nearby

Feed titles encountered (raw RSS, debug):
- New York Post
- NYT > Top Stories
- BBC News
- The Independent World
- Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera
- World
- World & Nation